

Lib. R. R. R. Cattle or Robb or Steale any thing from us, That you cause
 p. 51 satisfaccon to be made to us to the full vallue thereof.

4^{ly} Wee will as you have hitherto (soe that you doe for the future keep peace and ffreindship (with the Piscataway and all other our neighbour Indians in freindship with us both in Maryland and Virginia And as you have hitherto kept back yo^r Indians soe that you will not hereafter suffer any of yo^r Troopes to goe downe into our Country. To disturbe us or any of the Piscataway or other Indians in freindship with us, But in case any difference shall happen hereafter between you and us; or betweene yo^r Indians, and any our freind Indians Wee desire a warr may not ensue But that, notice may be given thereof, and for that end you or any other the great men of your nation may very freely and without any feare come downe to the house of Jacob Young liveing at the head of our bay who shall have order and power given him to give speedy notice to the Lord Prop^{ty} soe that he may come or send Commission^{rs} to treat^e wth you whereby a right understanding may be held betweene you and us, and all our neighbouring Indians in freindship with us that the Chaine of freindship may be kept bright and as in this Government.

And now wee would have you take notice, that as this is the third time, Wee have taken this long Iourny to Speake with you here, soe wee shall now Expect that your greate men make one Iourny into the borders of our Country to the said Jacob Youngs house to treat^e with the Lord Prop^{ty}
 p. 52 there whereby he may see you and speake with you and you may heare the peace confirmed from his owne mouth, and when you appoint that you cann be there wee will pray his Lo^{pp} to meet you and bring with him some of the greate men of those Indian nations for whom wee have formerly made peace, soe that they may renew and strengthen their peace themselves. And to bind the peace strong and lasting for the Cannowes, wee for them give a hanke of Zevant fifty gilders:

Propositions of the Hon^{ble} Coll Henry Coursey and Philemon Lloyd to the Maquess the Oneydes the Onnondages and Cojages Indians in the Court yard of Albany August the fourth A^o 1682

Wee are come hither from the Right Hon^{ble} the Lord Prop^{ty} of Maryland to speake with you and first wee are Comanded to tell you, that not withstanding your Troopes have beene downe in our Country, this last summer, and not only Killed and taken Prisoners severall of the Piscataways Indians Our freinds contrary to the Articles of peace made wth Coll Cour-